NOTICE

It is the intention of the Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County to adopt at its regular meeting to be held on October 12th, 1960 the following ordinance, to-wit:

An ordinance to be known as an ordinance to regulate the operation of vehicles on the highways of said county and towns therein and to prescribe penalties for violations of the said ordinance.

Be it ordained by the Board of County Supervisors of Appomattox County, Virginia, that there is hereby adopted an ordinance to be known as an ordinance to regulate the operation of motor vehicles on the highways of the County of Appomattox, State of Virginia, and defining and setting forth prescribed penalties for the violation of such ordinance.

(a) Reckless driving; general rule. Irrespective of the maximum speeds herein provided, any person who drives a vehicle upon a highway recklessly or at a speed or in a manner so as to endanger life, limb or property of any person shall be guilty of reckless driving; provided that the driving of a motor vehicle of any speed limit provision of subsection D hereof shall not of itself constitute ground for prosecution for reckless driving under this subsection.

(b) Same; specific instances. A person shall be guilty of reckless driving who shall:

(1) Drive a vehicle when not under proper control or with inadequate or improperly adjusted brakes upon any highway of this State;

(2) While driving a vehicle, overtake and pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction, upon or approaching the crest of a grade or upon approaching a curve in the highway, where the driver's view along the highway is obstructed, except where the overtaking vehicle is being operated on a highway having two or more designated lanes of roadway for each direction of travel or on a designated one-way street or highway;

(3) Drive a vehicle when it is so loaded, or when there are in the front seat such number of persons as to obstruct the view of the driver to the front or sides of the vehicle or to interfere with the driver's control over the driving mechanism of the vehicle;

(4) Pass or attempt to pass two other vehicles abreast, moving in the same direction, except on highways having separate roadways of three or more lanes for each direction of travel, or on designated one-way streets or highways;

(5) Overtake or pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction at any steam, diesel or electric railway grade crossing or at any intersection of highways unless such vehicles are being operated on a highway having two or more designated lanes of roadway for each direction of travel, or on a designated one-way street or highway, or while pedestrians are passing or about to pass in front of either of such vehicles, unless permitted so to do by a traffic light or police officers;

(6) Fail to stop at a school bus stopped on the highway for the purpose of taking on or discharging school children, when approaching the same from any direction and to remain stopped until all school children are clear of the highway and the bus is put in motion, provided, however, that this shall apply only to school buses marked or identified as provided in the regulation of the State Board of Education;

(7) Fail to give adequate and timely signals of intention to turn, partly turn, slow down or stop, as required by 46.1-216 through 46.1-220; of the Code of Virginia;

(8) Exceed a reasonable speed under the circumstances and traffic conditions existing at the time regardless of any posted speed limit;

(9) Drive a motor vehile upon the highways of this State and County at a speed in excess of 75 miles per hour;

(10) Fail to bring his vehicle to a stop immediately before entering a highway from a side road when there is traffic approaching upon such highway within five hundred feet of such point of entrance, unless a "Yield Right of Way" sign is posted; or where such sign is posted, fail, upon entering such highway, to yield the right of way to the driver of a vehicle approaching on such highway from either direction;

(11) Drive or operate any automobile or other motor vehicle upon any driveway or premises of a church, or school, or of any recreational facilities or of any business property open to the public recklessly or at a speed or in a manner so as to endanger the life, limb or property of any person.

(c) Same; penalties. Every person convicted of reckless driving under section (a) or section (b) above set forth shall for the first offense be punished by a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $50.00 or by a jail sentence of not more than thirty days either or both such fine and jail sentence for each conviction or subsequent conviction for reckless driving under section (a) and (b) above set forth committed within twelve months before or after the date of conviction of reckless driving for which he has been convicted, such persons shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50.00 or more than $300.00 or by imprisonment in jail not less than ten days nor more than thirty days or both such fine and imprisonment.

(d) Maximum and minimum speed limits; posting, etc. of school zones. No person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway of this County at a speed in excess of:

(1) Fifty-five miles per hour if the vehicle is a passenger motor vehicle, passenger bus, pick-up or panel truck not exceeding an actual gross weight of 5,000 pounds, or a motorcycle;

(2) Forty-five miles per hour if the vehicle is a truck, road tractor, tractor-truck, or combination of vehicles designed to transport property or is a motor vehicle being used to tow a vehicle designed for self-propulsion of a house trailer;

(3) Thirty-five miles per hour if the vehicle is being used as a school bus carrying children;

(4) Forty-five miles per hour if the vehicle or combination of vehicles is operating under a special permit issued by the State Highway Commission in accordance with the 1950 Code of Virginia and amendments thereto Sections 46.1-330 and 46.1-343. The State Highway Commission may, however, prescribe a speed limit of less than forty-five miles per hour on any permit issued in accordance with Code Section 46.1-330 and 46.1-343;

(5) Twenty-five miles per hour in a business or residential district unless otherwise prescribed by the proper authorities of any incorporated town in the said county.

(6) Thirty-five miles per hour in any incorporated town in the said County unless otherwise prescribed by proper authorities of the said town.

(7) Any person violating this section or any provision thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof punished by fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $300.00 or by confinement in jail not exceeding a period of thirty days, either or both such fine and imprisonment.

Effective Date: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect after its passage by the Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County, Virginia, on October 12th, 1960, and after the same has been published in full or its title and informative summary of the substance of the said ordinance has been published for two weeks in The Times-Virginian, a weekly newspaper published in the County of Appomattox, Virginia and thereafter until repealed by proper action by the Board of Supervisors for the County of Appomattox, State of Virginia.

Card of Thanks

A letter of good thanks and appreciation to my good neighbors, friends and acquaintances for their kind services, flowers, gifts, visits and letters of offered assistance, and especially to the primary school at Evergreen for their hand drawings. After enjoying the pictures immensely they found their way to the bedridden children in the hospital. It cheered me and in mere words I cannot express further.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear sister, Bessie Matrin Cobbs, who passed away two years ago, Oct. 4, 1958.

They say that time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget;
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.

A face that is always before us,
A voice we cannot forget;
Your smile will last forever,
In memory we can see you yet.

God gave us strength to fight it,
And courage to face the blow;
But what it means to lose you,
No one will ever know.

—Sadly missed by
Brothers and Sisters.
(1tp)

In memory of Richard Wayne Moore, who passed away 2 years ago October 5, 1957.

The rolling streams of life roll on,
But still, a vacant chair;
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile,
of one who once sat there.
We miss you no less as time passes on,
Than we did on the day of your going;
For absence can never close the door of our heart,
And the lamp of your love still glowing.
Every day in some small way,
Memories of you come our way.
Time and years flow swiftly by,
But memories of you will never die.
Your life a beautiful memory,
Your absence a silent grief.
You sleep in God's beautiful garden,
In sunshine, in perfect peace.
Sadly missed by his parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Moore and Lewis Edward.

In Memorian

In loving rememberance of my wife, Dora Durie, who departed this life two years ago, Aug. 25, 1958.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thoughts to reach.
Sadley missed by husband,
W. S. Durie and children

Following the lunch hour conferences will be held by Mrs. Hubert Wilkerson for The YWA Directors and counselors; Mrs. Robert Hubbard and Mrs. Carl Wooldridge will lead the GA Conference for the counselors and Mrs. William C. Hubbard will lead the Conference for the Sunbeam Counselors and Directors.

Rev. Zach J. Deal, Jr., Southern Baptist missionary to Colombia since 1947, does evangelistic work in the old city of Cartagena and in the surrounding area. The territory for which he is responsible extends from interior Colombia where "horsebacking it" is the most practical mode of transportation, to San Andres and Providencia Islands, 400 miles from Cartagena across the Caribbean Sea.

There are nine Baptist churches and 15 preaching stations in this area, and Mr. Deal on his visits does everything from preaching, teaching, and pastoral counseling to offering advice on health problems and agricultural methods.

A native of Deep Creek, Va., he received the bachelor of arts degree from Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tenn., and the bachelor of divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex. Before going to Colombia he was pastor of First Baptist Church, Springtown, Okla., and associate pastor of churches in South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas.

He is married to the former Barbara Williams, of Marion, N. C. They have four children: Zach Jeremiah, III, John Michael, Daniel Stephen, and Rebecca Cecilia. They are now in the States on furlough.

Rev. Deal will also speak at the YWA Council meeting at Falling River Church near Brookneal on Monday evening, Oct. 10th at 7:30. Nancey Chandler of Liberty will introduce Rev. Deal.
